THE GOLD EXCITEMENT.

This has been the most exciting day in Wall street since the great speculation raged, eight years ago. Long before the hour for opening the Gold Room this morning, the vicinity of the gold room, and even the doors were opened there, was a throbbing, surging mass of excited humanity. Shortly after, and even before 10 o'clock, the hour for opening, the entire hall and passage-ways were crowded, so that it was difficult to move in any direction. Every one was talking, joking, and there was a sense of wild excitement, the extent of which was never before witnessed in this city. Brokers were shouting at the top of their voices, and were waving, others were engaged in writing memoranda, while others were engaged in the speculation regardless of any of the above. A gentleman took an inventory of the contents of the pockets of a broker, who, he said, had been

ADDRESS

To the Voters of the County of Cook and City of Chicago:

The Convention which assembled at Library Hall, on the 16th inst., to nominate a ticket for city and county officers, adopted a resolution that "The Republican party presents no ticket, but, and inasmuch as current of the city and county, and inasmuch as the action of the Convention will not be binding upon any person not voluntarily submitted patronage and power, it is recommended to the voters of Cook county to support candidates who will be faithful to the interests of the people, and who will not use their official influence in favor of any ticket which they have issued in the esteem of the people." This resolution was passed by a vote of [illegible] to [illegible]. The Convention then proceeded to nominate a ticket, which was received with [illegible] applause, and amounted to a unanimous endorsement of the action of the Republican party in the matter of nominations. The ticket is before the people, and, as we have said, we have no desire to conceal the fact that we are in favor of its election. It is not to be supposed that the Republican party will support a ticket composed of office-hunting and office-holding Democrats, and we have no apology to offer for asking our friends to vote for the candidates whose names will be included in the above list.

It is well known that most of the nominees on the Library Hall ticket have been tried and weighed in the community for years, and their fitness for the offices to which they have been nominated is generally admitted. In many instances the selections, disregarding the politics of the party, are the very best that could be made. In other instances the selections, while not entirely satisfactory to the Republican party, are such as will be cheerfully supported by it, for the reason that it is the duty of all citizens, when the nominations of their party are not entirely satisfactory, to support them for the sake of party success. Then, too, the Republican party has a right to expect that the Democrats will support the Republican nominees in the interest of the city and county. Under the circumstances, we think that the Republican party will not be justified in nominating a ticket of its own, and we therefore recommend the support of the Citizens' ticket.

The personnel of the Citizens' ticket for city and county officers consists of eight Republicans and seven Democrats. The nominees for Mayor and Judge of the Superior Court are Democrats. There is no Republican on the Circuit bench, and but one on the Probate bench. The nominees for Sheriff, Coroner, Surveyor, Public Administrator, Attorney, Clerk, Treasurer, Comptroller, Senators, Representatives, Assessors, Collectors, Supervisors, Justices of the Peace, Constables, and Commissioners of Public Buildings, are Republicans.

In view of the foregoing facts, and in view of the fact that the Democrats have had the lion's share in the nominations for city and county offices, we think that the Republicans have been very liberal in the matter of nominations, and that they have conceded to their opponents a fair and reasonable representation. We therefore recommend the ticket to the support of the Republican party, and we do so with the confidence that it will receive the hearty support of the Democrats who have been honored with nominations.

In following a succession for this occasion, it is not our purpose to enter into a discussion of the principles involved in the election. We have no apology to offer for the action of the Republican party in its municipal nominations, relating to matters purely municipal, and we have no apology to offer for the action of the Democratic party in the same matter. We believe that a city ticket can be filled to secure the best administration of city affairs, without reference to the politics of the candidates. We believe that a county ticket can be filled to secure the best administration of county affairs, without reference to the politics of the candidates. We believe that a State ticket can be filled to secure the best administration of State affairs, without reference to the politics of the candidates. We believe that a National ticket can be filled to secure the best administration of National affairs, without reference to the politics of the candidates.

It is well known that most of the nominees on the Library Hall ticket have been [illegible] and budging the community for years, and their fitness for the offices to which they have been nominated is generally admitted. Final Adjournment.

MORNING SESSION.

The Board of Supervisors met at 10 A. M. pursuant to adjournment. The roll was called and the minutes were read and approved.

Supervisor ROSS moved that the following communication be received and placed on file. Carried.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24, 1869.

To the Board of Supervisors of Cook County:

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to report that by the request of the Chairman of the Committee on Public Buildings, I have examined the roof of the South Court House, and find that the work has been done in accordance with the specifications, and that the roof is now complete.

I would further say, that Superintendent Kenyon's report is correct, and that the work has been done in a workmanlike manner, and that the roof is now water-tight.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES ROSS, Constructor.

Supervisor HARRIS asked how Mr. Thomas' bill was to be paid. It was to be paid from the contingent fund.

Supervisor SMITH moved that the salary be paid.

Supervisor DOLTON was up again for the thirty-second time.

Supervisor SMITH moved that the salary be paid.

The yeas and nays were called for the eighth time on this motion.

Supervisor Sunsby's motion was carried, by 21 to 15.

The following bills were allowed:

FOOR HOUSE BUTTLER.

The Committee on Claims and Finance reported that they had expended money for the Poor House, and recommended that it be allowed and placed on file.

TOWN ACCOUNTS.

The Committee on Town and Town Accounts reported that they had examined the accounts of the Town Collector, and found a balance in the hands of the Collector of $1,000, and recommended that the same be paid over to the Treasurer of the said town.

The report was accepted and ordered on file.

REPLACING BOOKS.

The Committee on Claims and Finance recommended appropriations of $200 to build shelving for the Circuit Court Library in the town of Worth. The report was adopted.

ADVERTISING.

An appropriation of $50 was made for the report of the Treasurer's bond.

The Committee on Claims and Claims recommended the payment of some bills. Adopted.

The Committee on Claims and Finance reported that they had examined the bonding of the Justices and Constables, and found them correct.

The board then adjourned until October 4, at 2 p. m.

NEW BUILDINGS.

Chicago Still Rapidly Advancing.

Recent Improvements.

On several recent occasions THE TRIBUNE has alluded to the fact that Chicago is growing at a general rate. All over the country the tenor of the general complaint is, that not only is this true of Chicago, but that it is true to such a degree as to be unhealthy. The New York papers, the Philadelphia papers, and the papers of Boston are all burdened with the same sorrowful lament of hard times and a general lapse in the Work. That Chicago was the only place in America, it would seem, from the tone in which it is referred to in the editorial columns of the New York Herald, in spite of the same tendency throughout.

Some time since, THE TRIBUNE published an article in which the statement was made that there were 1,500 buildings in course of erection in the city. Since that statement was made, the number has been greatly increased. This latter statement has been generally disbelieved, and the writer of the article referred to has been charged with an utter lack of any knowledge of the subject. They would not only be a credit to any city, but would be a credit to any city in saying a great deal.

Supervisor FUTTLE said Mr. Thomas got the contract for building the Court House.

Supervisor SMITH moved to insert the amount of money in the contract.

It was carried by 19 to 17.

Supervisor FUTTLE moved to insert the amount, which was carried by 19 to 17.

Supervisor HARRIS moved that the contract be awarded to Thomas. Carried by 19 to 17.

Now, since Chicago is a finished city as compared with what it is destined to be, and since Chicago is growing in all directions, and since the rapidity of its growth is unprecedented, and since the future of Chicago is a matter of interest, not only to the people of the city, but to the people of the country at large, it will be found not only one of the most valuable specials of the day, but one of the most valuable specials of the year, to have a full and complete list of the buildings in course of erection in the city. Such a list THE TRIBUNE has taken pains to procure, and it is as follows:

BANK BALL.

MASTIC BUILDING—TWENTY STORIES.

The extensive firms of Chicago and Evanston are erecting a building on the corner of Washington and Dearborn, on the grounds occupied by Tremont House, which, in point of magnificence, will be the equal of any building in the country. It will be 100 feet front on Washington street, and 175 feet deep on Dearborn. It will be a fire-proof building throughout, and will be twenty stories high. The foundation is now in course of preparation, and will be completed in a few days. The building is to be of the Mastic block, and will be the first building of the kind in the city. It will be completed in the spring.

ADDITIONS.

THE OPERA HOUSE.

"Forman" (Mr. H. S. Crosby sole) at the Opera House. In fact, the vast management of Mr. Crosby is now in full blast, and the Opera House is the favorite resort of the fashionable people. Parvell Hall. The building is to be 70 feet by 100 feet, and will be four stories high. It will be completed by the 1st of December, and will be used for Christian Association purposes. The building is to be very neat and substantial, and will be an ornament to the city.

Mr. Parvell is about to erect a six-story building on the corner of Randolph and Clark streets, to be used for the same purposes as Parvell Hall. The building is to be 70 feet by 100 feet, and
